

Membership Application

A KRA Membership and the advertisements within go toward the promotion of Red Angus cattle. Last year, KRA had a very productive advertising campaign. We were able to keep members up to date by continuing the newsletter, maintaining the website, printing and mailing the membership directory, and we held a very successful FCCP sale. Please complete the enclosed membership application and become a part of an exciting group of forward thinking cattlemen. Your membership entitles you to a free listing in both the membership directory and on the website.
